

DUNDEE OATS

Avena Sativa

A high yielding semi-erect forage oat suited for central NSW to northern Queensland.

BENEFITS

- Large leaf type
- High forage quality
- Strong establishment and seedling vigour
- Fantastic growth through Autumn-Spring
- Fine stem / Large leaf producing quality hay
- Moderately tolerant to rust

+500mm

Wide range of soil types

4.5 - 8.0

Dryland: 40-60kg/ha
Irrigation: 80-100kg/ha

PLANTING

- Planting time: March - June
- Sowing depth: 20 - 40mm
- Dryland sowing rate: 40-60kg / ha
- Irrigation sowing rate: 80-100kg / ha

MANAGEMENT

- Grazing can start when plants are well anchored (6-8 weeks from emergence)
- Rotational grazing is best for oats
- Tiller death may occur if grazed below the first node

USES suited to all livestock types, silage and hay

Companion Species - Vetch, ryegrass, turnips/radish, Persian clover

Disclaimer: All information, including any trial results, provided by Agrimix is considered accurate at the time of publication. The performance and results achieved using Agrimix seed products may vary depending on factors including climatic conditions, soil composition, application methods and farming practices. Last updated December 2022. All sales are subject to Terms of Supply which can be accessed at www.agrimix.com.au

www.agrimix.com.au